Lunch at Château de Prangins and visit of their new exhibition 'What does Switzerland eat?'

Sunday 16th June –Lunch at 12h

«Show me what you eat and I will tell you who you are.» Taking its cue from the times in which we live, the exhibition “A table! What does Switzerland eat?” sets out to explore what’s bubbling away in the cooking pots of Homo helveticus. Swiss culinary culture is constantly changing, and this is reflected in the wide variety of its regional specialities. What is our food heritage ? Where do its roots lie ? Combining a scientific, historical and sometimes playful approach, not forgetting the gourmet side of the topic, this exhibition serves up a fascinating and diverse menu covering everything from table manners and the myriad ways of preparing and consuming food to the mechanisms behind famine and plenty, taboos and culinary trends.

Entrance: Adults CHF 10, seniors 8, children up to 16 free.

Fête de la Musique, Lausanne Friday 21st June

Lausanne’s summer season of music starts as always with the Fête de la Musique on 21st June, when its streets, squares, parks and churches become stages for performances of every musical genre. We can enjoy some music and meet up for a meal and a glass of champagne graciously offered by Rex Simon to celebrate his birthday! More details as soon as the concert programme is available.

From 5 pm jazz and pizza in the garden – or in the cellar in the event of rain – at Domaine de la Brazière, Tartegnin - 2% off wines bought on the day.

Saturday 6th July

Nestling in the vineyards above Rolle, the village of Tartegnin dates back to the early 11th century. We have whiled away many an hour tasting wines and snacks offered by the Domaine de la Brazière, and it doesn’t come any better than this: in the late afternoon sun enjoying endless pizza in the garden overlooking the lake, and trying to decide which wines we’ll take home this time.

Romainmôtier - Sunday 21st July

The small medieval town of Romainmôtier, lying on the river Nozon, is a picturesque reflection of this country's past. Its thousand-year-old Romanesque-style abbey church is one of Switzerland's oldest, a unique site whose walled enclosure has partially survived and whose vestiges allow visitors to imagine the grandeur of the former monastery. Renowned for its concerts of sacred music, this mysterious and peaceful spot, unaffected by the passing of time, welcomes visitors from early spring till winter. On 21st July there will be an organ concert at 5 pm. No reservation is necessary and entrance is free, with a collection.
